What is MMNC?

- It is a service for residents from Woodford, Hazelbrook, Lawson and Bullaburra
- It provides assistance such as,
 - palliative care
 - home visiting
 - no interest loans
 - exercise classes for the over sixties
 - and a number of communication and technological services
- It sponsors community events, festivals and conferences
- It supplies community information, and is an excellent venue for meetings, classes and groups
- It brings residents of all ages together
- It builds a safer and more resilient community by connecting people with services and each other

Who makes up MMNC?

- It is made up of members of the community who aim to identify and address the interests and issues of residents in the Mid Mountains
- Any person who is a member of the broad community is eligible to join
- The members elect a management committee to manage the organisation on their behalf

Seven good reasons for joining

1. To raise issues and voice concerns
2. To influence three levels of government
3. To meet with other people in the Mid Mountains
4. To develop skills in working with other groups
5. To be involved with community development in your local area
6. To work with other residents on special projects
7. Because you care about the future of this community
